Clerk:Anita Evans; Absent:Arwel Davies; :Translator: Catrin Lloyd; Ymwelwyr none.

1) A word of welcome from the chairman.

2) -M. Griffiths minute 88-6(e)/ declaration of interest.

3) E-mails from the PCSO were read out in her absence. The main problem has been with youngsters carving their names onto the work the builders have been doing on the Play Corner wall. Luckily they were caught on cctv.

the translator left after 20 minutes, because the person who requested the service had not attended.

4) Sept. minutes found to be correct:prop. D. Davies;sec. B. Cobain.

a). Members had another meeting with 3 officers of Carm. C. Council to oversee improvements;there is still some to do, and a deep clean of every room is essential. This Council is very aware of the time lost in waiting for the site to be brought up to standard. H. Lewis proposed that we look into the possibility of improving the site ourselves, and B. Cobain seconded. Architect Daryl Thomas will be contacted.

b). We will contact the enforcement dept. again regarding the wild state of the yard at the old School in New Inn.

c) the hedge erected of horse dung in Gwyddgrug again will be reported to the enforcement dept.

ch)we need to send numbers for the 5 footpaths we are prepared to upkeep, after they are brought up to standard.

d)Depot C. Sir, Pencader—parking area in front of the depot in Pencader(for sale)—is being dealt with by solicitors.

dd) we will set up a meeting with Adam Price A. M. regarding our roads.

e) an up date on highway jobs was read out—the list of requirements is very long, and there are a lot still needing attention.
